Conference Agenda

Individual and Collective Rights: Finding a Structure that Works

Saturday July 21, 2018

11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. Conference Registration, Statler Foyer

1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. ALRAcademy

Intended for first-time ALRA members or ALRA members who have not recently attended an ALRA conference, this workshop will provide attendees with touchstone information about ALRA's history, structure and its benefits and value for members. It also provides participants with an opportunity to reflect on the principles of neutrality and discuss its practical applications for members and staff of labor relations and mediation agencies. The workshop includes a comparative analysis of US and Canadian labor law frameworks, allowing participants to learn from agency practitioners in various jurisdictions.
